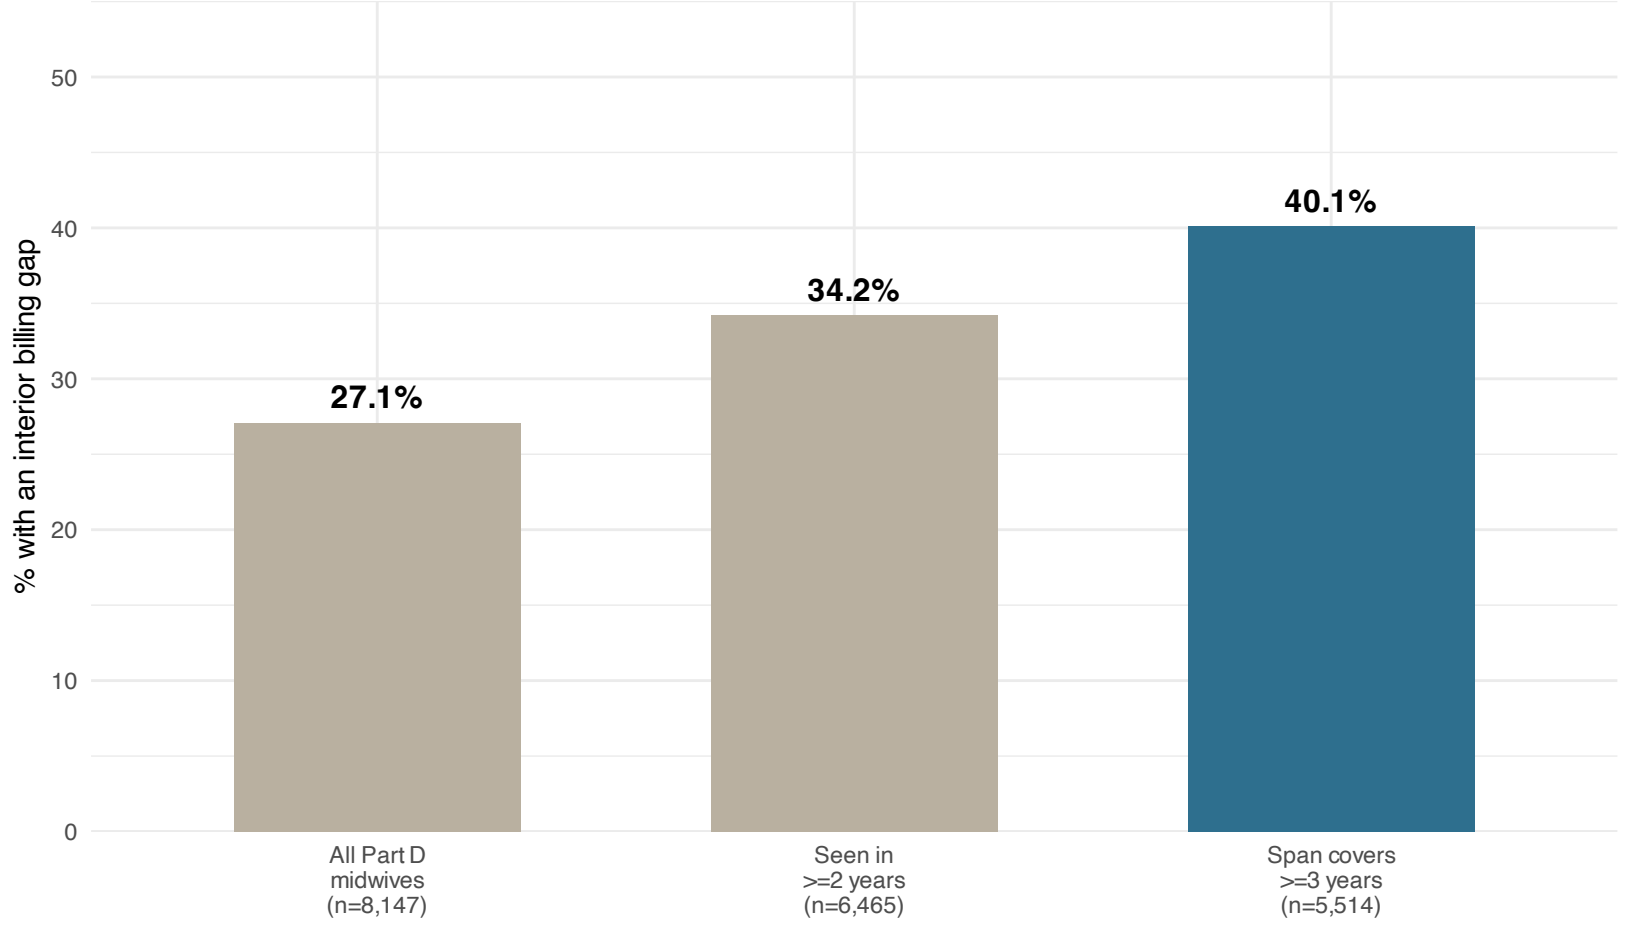
27.1% divides by midwives who could never have a gap in the first place


A Medicare billing gap requires a span wide enough to have an interior year missing